

was sure he would do it in a minute".

You will notice by my writings that I am trying to write a little finer so that people ~~needn't~~ think I wear the —.

Dear little Annie said just before she went to bed, "Tell father something about me". But I can't think of anything to write about her. She hasn't been out so much this winter as usual, she has been troubled so much with the tooth ache. And there hasn't been much snow so that she could use her sled. But we are just having our Winter here. We have had colder weather so far, ^{this month,} than we have had before this Winter. I haven't much to write about after all but I want our Winter here. We have had colder weather so far, ^{this month,} than we have had

Transcription:

[fragment letter, from Emily to Leander, f.29] was here he would do it in a minute".

You will notice by my writings that I am trying to write a little finer so that people needn't think I wear the _____.

Dear little Annie said just before she went to bed, "Tell father something about me." But I can't think of anything to write about her She hasn't been out so much this winter as usual, she has been troubled so much with the teeth ache. And there hasn't been much snow so that she could use her sled. But we are just having our Winter here. We have had colder weather so far ^{^this month}, than we have had before this Winter. I havn't much to write about after all but I want to see you, oh so much. I wish I had wings to fly out-there and back to the babies when I chose but now my heart-is divided but-the larger half is with you my own precious husband. So good by for the present-

Yours as ever

Leamy

My regards to friend Jim C.

Transcription:

had wings to fly out there and back to the babies when I chose but now
my heart is divided but the larger
half is with you my own precious
husband. So good by for the present

Yours as ever

Emmy

My regards to friend Jim

E.